

Real Estate Group

Daniel Campbell

Principal

As a Principal with Endeavor Real Estate Group, Daniel Campbell pursues commercial property acquisition and development opportunities, and also participates the development of current investments.

Relevant Experience

Since joining Endeavor in 2006, Daniel has executed several large shopping center developments, acquired numerous properties, and helped to establish the company's $500-million CMBS hedge fund.

Daniel's significant development projects include The Parke shopping center in Cedar Park, Five Hills shopping center in Copperas Cove, Belterra Village in Dripping Springs, Lewisville Towne Crossing in Lewisville, and Austin Bluffs shopping center in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Education and Credentials

The University of Texas at Austin, McCombs School of Business, Master of Business Administration, Concentration in Real Estate Finance, 2006

Texas A&M University, College Station, Bachelor of Business Administration, 2001

Professional and Community Involvement

Real Estate Council of Austin – Member

International Council of Shopping Centers – Member

Covenant Presbyterian Church – Member

The University of Texas at Austin, McCombs School of Business – Professor